

Abstract of the Disclosure:

A process which determines all locations in a service area which are subject to interference-causing limitations, assigns an average service level to each such location, sums the service levels at all such locations, and divides the sum of the service levels at all such locations by the total service level for the service area to produce an interference value.

5